Hi Fellow Members,

I have to say that last month's meeting was lots of fun for everyone. I can't believe all the different items that were for sale. I am sorry that some of you had to take so much home. It seemed to me that we did not have as many members present and of course that affects your sales. I want to thank everyone who helped with the set up and all the members who participated. It didn't seem to me that we had as many Show and Helps as we usually have either.

I can't believe how time seems to be flying by. Next meeting will be Turkey time. Then we turn around and it will be our Holiday meeting. I know that we have all been very busy making our quilts and hats for the luncheon. Then I come along and ask you to do a Quilts of Valor for our vets. Then life has a way of giving us more busy things. I hope you find time to do some quilting that you want to do for yourself and maybe do some quilting gifts for the holidays. Most people enjoy handmade gifts and some of the quilts you show are so beautiful that I know they would be appreciated.

I haven't heard anything on our move. We will let you know as soon as we hear anything.

Have a great Halloween and enjoy the candy.

Happy Quilting,
Barbara

PROGRAM NEWS

April Atlas, 2014 VP Programming

November 8: Community Quilts Production Day and Guest Speaker

Community Quilts Production Day: Plan to stay after refreshments and help out this important production session. Join Gerry Tucker and the Monday Sewers for a nice afternoon of teamwork for good causes and friendly socializing. Help tie pin-basted quilts for donations to good causes.

Guest Speaker will be Natalia Giordano, LCSW, Program Director of Casa Valentina, who will talk about their work helping local at-risk youth and former foster care clients with affordable housing and life skills programs. <http://www.casavalentina.org>

Holiday Gift & Toy Drive. In the spirit of Hanukkah and Christmas gift-giving, Ocean Waves will collect gifts to donate for children and young parents in our community. These gifts will be donated to two local non-profit organizations: Educate Tomorrow and Casa Valentina. The two collection days are the November 8 and the December 13 meetings.

Shoebox Swap

November 8 is the Final day to give and receive boxes. All participants please bring blocks and anything created with the blocks to the December 13th meeting and we will hang a display for the guild to view.

Sign-up for the January 18 & 19, 2015 Luncheon classes with teacher Rose Hughes.

December 13: Guest Speaker, Gift & Toy Drive, Shoebox Blocks Display

Basil Papanastassiou, author, quilt teacher, and therapist of complementary mental health practices will be our guest speaker December 13. Basil (which rhymes with dazzle) gave a presentation to the Quilting in the Pines guild recently. "Everyone liked Basil and his quilts," recommended guild president Barbara Tate. He will bring copies of his new book for sale at our meeting.

Holiday Gift & Toy Drive: The final collection day and presentation. Please bring new gifts, toys, and supplies for young parents who have babies, toddlers, and young children. Beneficiaries will be two local non-profit organizations: Educate Tomorrow <http://www.educatetomorrow.org> which serves youth who have aged-out of Social Services offering them mentor volunteers, tutoring, scholarships, academic camps, and Casa Valentina <http://www.casavalentina.org>, which helps former foster care youth with affordable housing and life skills programs. These two organizations support young parents of 48 children. We will present our gifts to their representatives. Bring un-gift-wrapped and we will gift-wrap in clear cellophane for easy sorting and distribution to the recipients.

Yes, there are babies, contrary to my statement at the previous guild meeting. Educate Tomorrow reported October 20 that they support the parents of 41 children, including seven infants. Twelve children are 6-11 years old, and the remainder are ages 2 - 5 years old.

What to donate? There are many needs: Baby supplies, crib sheets, mattress pads, baby equipment, toddler educational toys, games, children's books, art supplies, washable quilts or comforters for children and adults using twin-size beds, sheet sets and towel sets for male and female adults and children. Two child-size table and chair sets. A very special luxury for these children would be a tricycle, scooter, and little bicycles with training wheels for ages 3-5. Please note, these gifts should be new, fresh and clean.

2015 January 18 & 19 Luncheon teacher, lecturer Rose Hughes. See what she does at her web site <http://www.rosehughes.com/home.htm>. Check out the button "Free Tutorials & Videos" and view her at her "Video Fast Clicks." Find materials lists and more information on Rose's website for our classes:

Half Day Class: "Art Quilt- Dimensional Stitching" Saturday, January 17, $29 guild member class fee, $35 non-guild member. Learn how to use hand-stitching in exciting, non-traditional ways, taking traditional linear, fill and dimensional embroidery stitches and learn to use them in unique ways to enhance your quilt surfaces.

Full Day Class: "Double Quilt Appliqué" Sunday, January 18, $44 class fee for members, $55 for non-members. This workshop teaches two machine appliqué techniques that are easy and will open new doors to your creativity.

SEWING MACHINES FOR PANAMA

Diane Miller

This Woman's Cooperative in Carrizal, Panama was recommended to us by a woman's art group in Panama City. It was chosen because the eleven women and one man have continued to work together in the Cooperative since it was established by the Peace Corp and the Panamanian government in 2007. They had only one broken treadle sewing machine and use gingham fabric for smocking. They have been gluing shells together to create shell art to help support their families.

On October 10, 2014 Ocean Waves donated three Singer sewing machines with plastic cases, 3 extension cords, bobbins, needles, 15 yards of gingham fabric, 24 yards of eyelet lace and 9 spools of thread to them. They were presented to the women by Michelle Miller. The Singer sewing machine sales woman traveled from Panama City for 5 hours by bus to attend the presentation. She gave the women a sewing class using the kits that Jennie Dauterman prepared and donated.

The women very much appreciate our generous gift and say, "MIL GRACIAS .... que Dios sigue bendiciendo las". Which is a "Thousand thanks, may God continue to bless you all".

The senoras have already made a little skirt! They are so proud and pleased!! I am absolutely THRILLED that Ocean Waves donated the machines to these women. They will change their lives!

HISTORY OF QUILTING

Homestead Center for the Arts has free programs several times a year. Phyllis Salt says she has attended twice and they were well worth the trip. Their next one, "The Fascinating History of Quilting," will be presented by Ocean Waves member Charlotte de Ogburn on Monday, November 3rd at noon. Sandwiches will be available but call 305-230-9185 to reserve.

The program will take place at the Women's Club of Homestead, 17905 SW 292 Street, just west of Krome Avenue.

HOSPITALITY

Joan Vigil

I hear that the meeting on October 11 was full of activity. Sorry I missed it. I was working at a church oyster supper in Maryland on the Chesapeake Bay. Our next quilt guild meeting will have the people whose last names start with S, T, U, V, W, X, Y and Z taking care of our refreshments. We have been having great lunches. Sandwiches and salads are a big hit. We all need to drink lots of water and leave out the sugar but.....chocolate doesn't count. Right? See ya.

LUNCHEON FACTS

Our 2015 Installation Luncheon will be held on Saturday, January 17, 2015 at the Elks Lodge, 10301 Sunset Drive, starting at 10:00 a.m. The cost is $35 per person and you can sign up at the November and December Ocean Waves meetings.

Our guest lecturer will be Rose Hughes. See "Programs" on page 3 for information on the classes she will teach that weekend.

The theme of our Luncheon is "Things that Women Do." That is also the theme of our Hat Challenge and our Quilt Challenge.

- Wear any hat that you decorate or embellish. (In other words, you can decorate it as dressy as you want, everyday hat, holidays, sports, hobbies, funny, any way that inspires you) but wear a hat.
- Make a quilt with a perimeter of no more than 100". It can be square, rectangular, round or hexagonal - be creative!

FABRIC EXCHANGE

Lois Erickson

There are only 3 months left to sign up for 2015 and then the list will be closed. There has been a wonderful response to next year's colors, so don't miss out on this fun way to build your strip stash. Keep your eyes out for new strip patterns to share with everyone too. Quilt shops are having sales and quilt shows will be starting soon, where there are wonderful opportunities to buy your fabric at great prices. You will need 2½ yards of fabric for the 28 available spots. So don't wait too long to sign up.

FABRIC EXCHANGE for 2014 - Beautiful Batiks!! - 100% cotton fabric. Quilt shop quality, please! Your fabric must be prewashed and pressed.

Size: ACCURATELY cut strips 2½" by width of fabric, 1½ yards of fabric, after having been washed, pressed and straightened, should yield enough strips. Bring your strips in a zip lock bag with your name on it. Come with one shade and go home with a wonderful mix of the color of the month. I usually do 2-3 different fabrics so I double my treasure, double my stash, double my fun!!!

2014 Colors (Batiks)

Nov: Pastel/Marbled

Dec: Dark Pink

2015 (More Batiks!)

I am upping the list to 28 people and 2 yards of fabric from this year's 21 people and 1.5 yards. Everyone seems really excited about the strips each month when they come. So glad this is going over well.

Cut 28 strips, then fold them in quarters, stack them up and put them in a large gallon size zip lock bag with your name on it. Bring one pattern / print of the color for that month and go home with a wonderful mix of that colors just waiting for you to stroke, cuddle and dream with. Some participants purchase and cut up 6 months' worth in advance or even enough for the whole year. SO here are the colors for 2015: Cut this out, put this in your shopping wallet, I phone note pad or wherever so you have it with you when you on your shopping excursions or travels. Look for sales, quilt shop specials, web sites and more and let us know about them also.

February: Lime Green (a great big hit last year)

March: Raspberry

April: Orange

May: Yellow

June: Pink (light or dark shades)

July: Greens

August: Burgundy / Maroon

September: Red

October: Aqua

November: Purple / Violet

December: Light Blues

See you at the quilt shops!!

Lois Erickson, 305-772-4235 (c)

COMMUNITY QUILTS

Gerry Tucker

Finally, our weather is approaching ideal! Also, we are nearing holidays and the season when we should think even more about doing for others. One small way is for all of us to participate in Community Quilts Production Day. After our next regular meeting on November 8, I ask you to plan to stay for a while to help tie quilts. You may never have tied quilts, but you can learn in five minutes. Such a good way to get to know each other better. There will be door prizes and chocolate. Be there or be square (or at the Ramble).

I have fabric for Quilts of Valor. See or call me to get the fabric. Please have a pattern in mind and know your fabric requirements.

The SOS (Supporters of Sunrise - the parents and friends support group) is having a sale on December 6 & 7 at 9040 Sunset Drive. Proceeds will benefit the individuals we serve. If you have donations for the sale, please contact me and I will arrange for pick up. No large furniture or used clothing. Thank you for your consideration.

Monday Sewers will meet November 3 and 17. All are welcome 10 a.m. until ? My address is 8100 SW 133 Ct., phone # 305-505-3256.

Wishing you straight seams and perfect points.

MEMBERSHIP NEWS

Sharon Krutulis

Greetings! I found some treasures at the White Elephant Sale last month, how about you? We had 58 members in attendance at the meeting in October. Sr. Clare Stephen, who was a visitor last month, joined and one of our new members Laura Capell brought her friend Linda Burnett.

Please update your Ocean Waves 2014 Directory and Handbook:

Sr. Clare Stephen
145 SW 107 Ave
Miami, FL 33174

I will be starting to collect membership dues for 2015, following the decision reached at the business portion of the November meeting. There will be some discussion about possibly rolling back the cost of the dues. I am planning to stay for Community Quilts, so I will be there for a couple of hours. If you are helping at the Ramble I will also be collecting dues in December and January or you can mail your dues to me at 16453 SW 294 Street, Homestead, FL 33033.

As we start preparing for the new year, I will be working on the 2015 Ocean Waves Directory and Handbook, please let me know if you have any changes to your information. Also, please let me know what small quilt groups you belong to, we are going to add that to the member profiles.

SUNSHINE Phyllis Salt

Joan Vigil was invited to participate in the 200th Anniversary Celebration of the War of 1812 in the Chesapeake Bay. She acted as a tour guide and story teller. Joan and her sisters grew up in that area and she spends time leading tours there every summer.

Pat and Pete Kuentzel flew in from Lopez Island, WA for a week of hands-on grandparenting. Leah Jeanne is six months old.

Carol Sandin's daughter was married in Georgia at a gala wedding.

INSPIRATION AROUND US Leslie Pope

A while back, I took some pictures of the underside of a concrete ceiling, and I wanted them to be inspiring, but as much as I looked at them, they just weren't. Then I had the idea to do a little photo manipulation – I paired the original image with a reversed image, then I copied both, and reversed them again, for a final image that contains 4 copies of the first photo. I am really excited about the results. I like the value contrasts and the sense of depth. I like all the linear texture – you could do that with stripes or quilting. It is a reminder of the power of a repeated image – what could be more suited to inspire quilts?

OCEAN WAVES QUILT GUILD MEETING MINUTES

October 11, 2014

Time: 9:35 a.m. Meeting called to order by Barbara Frazzetto, president.

1. Barbara asked for a show of hands of the number of "Quilts of Valor" made or in progress. There were three show of hands and one already turned in by Chauncey Barnes
2. The issue of where our meeting place will be is still up in the air. We have yet to tour the second place which is on Sunset Drive. The Day Care center is not moving until mid-November, maybe. We believe November's meeting will be in the usual place.
3. It was questioned whether we will have enough volunteers for the Ramble. Members need to sign up today to get the free pass for the day you volunteer. Still need more to sign up...please contact Mary Ann Ericson.
4. Luncheon - Everything is all tied up. Members can sign up anytime (they will be $45 at the door). If you are willing to help with baskets, favors, etc. please let Molly Gonzalez or Yvonne Emmanuelli know. They will have a project day in November or early December (date and place TBA) to put the baskets together. The baskets will have themes such as tea basket, wine and cheese, spa etc.
5. Diane Miller reported on her trip to Panama last weekend. She went to visit her daughter and help purchase the sewing machines donated by Ocean Waves. The donation went to the Woman's Cooperative of Carrizal, Panama (a cooperative the Peace Corp helped develop.) They had hand crank machine and a treadle machine which was no longer working. Diane and daughter bought three electric machines, three cases; bobbins needles and oil for machines; three extension cords; 15 yards of gingham fabric; 24 yards of eyelet lace and 9 spools of thread for a total of $985.78. $14.22 was given to Michelle Miller to deliver machines (five hour drive to city to pick up machines). Diane received word that the machines were delivered yesterday (10/10) and the Singer saleslady traveled to Carrizal to give user instructions herself!
6. Sharon Krutulius introduced new members – Sister Claire who visited last month and Linda Burnett who was brought by Liz Bruntley who is a high school friend (many years) Sharon asked Arlene to explain again how to get on Yahoo to get newsletter and reminded everyone you can also get newsletter on website.
7. April Atlas explained meetings until end of year. October – white elephant sale and Art Quilting video; November – will be Community Quilts; December- Toy and gift drive for Casa Valentina and Educate Tomorrow; ages 0-5 years, bring unwrapped and we will wrap with cellophane at meeting. January – luncheon speaker is Rose Hughes and her ½ day class will be hand stitching and the full day class on Sunday is called "Double Quilt Appliqué."
8. Gerry Tucker announced the Community quilts had quite a few quilt tops ready for tying at the November meeting. For anyone interested in making a Quilt of Valor, Gerry has a lot of available fabric at her house. Gerry also announced the "Sunrise Communities Yard Sale" at the Sunrise offices, December 6, 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. and December 7, 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. Proceeds go to fund activities for clients and Christmas gift cards for the needy. The sale will be at 9040 Sunset Drive.
9. Magella Sauvé from hospitality thanked everyone for their donations and reminded everyone to pick up their leftovers and plates
10. Phyllis Salt announced that today's Sunshine included: Darlene Martin had hip surgery recently; Joan Vigil is spending two weeks in Maryland; Carole Sandin's daughter Kibbe was married in Georgia last weekend; Nancy Barnes under the weather this weekend after flu shot; Pat Kuentzel is home for a week from Lopez Island; and Susan Yaskin is moving to North Carolina.
11. Mayra Diaz reminded us nominations are needed for President and Advance Planning 2016. You may email nominations to Mayra. So far Lois Erickson has accepted nomination for President.
12. Barbara reminded all that the AQS catalogue offers notions and fabrics as well as books.
13. LaVerne Johnson displayed the finished 2015 Chapter Quilt....beautiful.
14. Jennie Dautermann asked that the Ramble kits be returned as soon as possible. If possible, please bring to November meeting and they will get delivered to Ramble.

15. Lois Erickson explained the Luncheon challenge of a quilt about "What women do" with no more than 100" in perimeter. A reminder to sign up for the 2015 fabric exchange. Also a reminder that Lois is in charge of the "Quilter of the Year" nominations and she needs everyone to nominate a quilter. (A list of previous winners is listed in the directory.)
16. Marie Flanigan announced that Rusty Miller has a new book out and is having a book signing party October 13 at the Youth building of the Old Cutler Rd Presbyterian Church, 10-noon.
