President's Message

Alas, August signals the end of summer, the beginning of school and a countdown to the holiday season. Our summer meetings have been well attended and very productive. This month, Marie Flanigan will be teaching a workshop, Stars from Strips. This is a good opportunity to use up the 2 1/2 inch strips in your stash.

Thank you to Pat from Disconnected Piecers Quilt Guild in Port Charlotte for the Cowboy Quilts they let us borrow. When Deda learned that the Ocean Waves Cowboy Quilts were not available for the Cowboy Day Quilt Display at the Redland Fruit and Spice Park (they are on display at East Ridge) she reached out to other quilters, and Pat and her guild came through. Who would like to take a road trip to their Quilt Show, Gathering of Quilts, in February (Feb 17-18, 2018) in Punta Gorda? If there is enough interest we might try to plan a trip.

The following are a few bits of business to finish. Joan brought in some interesting "vintage" Christmas ornaments to get everyone thinking about how to make ornaments for the Deering Estate Christmas tree. I will show anyone struggling with the Scandinavian Fabric Star Christmas Ornament how to make it again, after the meeting. The VA baby shower will be in September on the same day as our meeting. If you want to donate baby items (it doesn't have to be a quilt) please bring them to the August meeting. If you know a qualified veteran, submit their name for a Quilt of Valor Quilt to be presented at our November meeting. If you have been working on a fidget quilt, now is the time to bring it back since Caitlyn and Ariel are in the process of completing their Silver Award. And, it is time to start looking for next year's Board of Officers. Kay Wilson has agreed to be the Nominating Committee Chairman. If you are interested, please submit your name to Kay or one of her committee members.

New this month:

Fat Quarter Raffle

Bring in a fat quarter (18"x21") for a chance to win ALL the fat quarters.

One of the greatest pleasures of August is the butterflies. Plant some milkweed (plumbago, porterweed, passionflower, etc.) today, spend some time in the garden and enjoy the calm before the fall craziness.

Monday Sewers

Joan Vigil

The Monday Sewers met at Gerry's house on July 10. More quilts were tied. The five participants shared their appreciation for the small groups of the quilt guild that have taken pieced tops for machine quilting or tying. Please keep a count of the quilts your group finishes and report to Gerry at the end of the year. Let Norma Jeanne Green know if your small group would like to help. Remember that help with binding and finishing touches is also appreciated.

Check with Gerry or Joan for the Monday Sewers August meeting dates, and join in the fellowship. We bring something special to eat and have lunch together. We have fun and accomplish great things for community quilts.

Gerry has asked for all to find a nice simple block pattern that could be used for our next community quilt. She will select the most appropriate block and then we will each make a block following that pattern. This is a fun project for the whole guild.

Phyllis Salt shows a scrap quilt.

Community Quilts Co-chair Needed

Gerry Tucker and Joan Vigil have been asking nicely for several months for a member to co-chair Community Quilts, but there have been no takers. Community Quilts are part of our Guild's Mission Statement, and part of Ocean Waves identity. Gerry has chaired this committee for years, done an excellent job, and now needs some help. In addition, Gerry's son plans to visit his Mom more often and would like the sewing room returned to a guest room. It is time for changes and new plans.

Please consider stepping up to this position, helping Gerry and the Guild. This may seem like a big job, but the infrastructure is already in place and the job responsibilities are very flexible. You would get to plan quilts, selecting blocks and color schemes – and - get others to make them! Use your creative planning and organizing skills to help lead Ocean Waves members in sharing quilting love with our community.

Diane Wong shares her bright, lively quilt.

Round Robin Concludes

Phyllis Salt

We had our final exchange in July, and received our own quilts back. They are each very different, beautiful and interesting. If there is enough interest, we will have another exchange this fall.

Please let me know if you want to join another Round Robin group.

Christmas ornament inspiration!

Family and Consumer Sciences Group

Joan Vigil

We do appreciate our president's presentation of a Christmas tree ornament project. These ornaments, if approved by the Deering Estates curator, will be on the tree in the kitchen at Deering. Hopefully, we will see some finished projects at the next meeting and maybe, someone would like to show us how to do a new ornament. The ornaments need to be made of materials and styles that would have been used before 1920...so...no glitter or plastic and nothing that would attract insects. As I collect suggestions and ideas from our group, I found that the red dye of that time period would have been from berries, therefore, it would be a brick red and not a bright Christmas red. Also the white would not be a bleached white. This is a project where we are all learning as we go along. Thanks and HELP.

Carol Grassbaugh shows a scrappy quilt.

We Care Quilters Betty Roxborough

The Women's Clinic at the Veteran's Administration (VA) is having a baby shower Sept. 7th for babies and toddlers of the women veterans. They have specifically asked us for baby items - quilts, bibs, receiving blankets, burp cloths, anything for a baby or a toddler that could be given out at that time. The We Care Quilters are busy making these items and we would love any additional items that Ocean Waves members would like to donate. We will be responsible for getting them to the VA, we just need to have them by the August Guild meeting.

Sunshine and Shadows Phyllis Salt

Former member Judith (Judy) Williams passed away in late July. We have Judy to thank for our many yards of beautiful fabrics and other sewing items. She served as a Guild officer, and shared her love of paper-piecing in workshops.

PPP (Puppy Pillow Project) Arlene G. Goldberg, update by L. Pope

Keep recycling those fabric trimmings and making them into puppy pillows. There is no pressure to complete the pillows – just do what you can, when you can.

Paws4You also needs volunteers for other things, such as walking and socializing the dogs. Just saying... Their web site is <http://paws4you.org/>

Finally, if you or your small group has made and delivered quilts directly to Paws4You, or to another shelter, please let me know how many so I can add them to my count.

Gary looks pleased to share his yellow and white quilt.

Save the Date --January 13, 2018 Nicki Jamieson

It will be time for the Ocean Waves Quilt Guild Installation Luncheon before you know it – to be held again at the Renaissance Ballroom, 5910 SW 8th Street, Miami, FL.

The luncheon theme will be "A Day at the Beach".

The memorial quilt challenge theme is "Beachy", with a size limit of 100 inches maximum perimeter.

Programs Deda Maldonado

August

Marie Flanagan will be teaching STARS FROM STRIPS. This is a great way to use up those 2 ½ inch strips from past fabric exchanges, or that jelly roll you've been saving.

The class will be held after the Ocean Waves Guild meeting on Saturday, August 12.

Class fee is $10.00. Reserve your space by paying with PayPal or Credit Card on the Ocean Waves website - <http://www.OceanWavesQuilters.com>

Click on "Members Only" and log in with the password: dedaow.

September Community Quilts

October Marcia Baraldi will back the first weekend of October to teach additional classes.

At our regular October meeting, we will have Melani Brewer with her Trunk Show: "Evolution of an Art Quilter". Melani is a Florida Fiber Artist that some may know from SAQA exhibits and in Ocean Waves' Quilt South Florida. Visit her website for more <http://melanibrewer.com/>

November Veterans Ceremony - Quilts of Valor

Marina Landi, a Fiber Artist from Brazil, will teach a 1/2 day class on Saturday after our meeting, and a full day class on Sunday a class. She is a SAQA Brazil member who has exhibited quilts in Brazil and the U.S, winning big prizes at the Houston International Quilt Festival in 2014 and last year. Visit her website <http://marinalandi.com.br>

Watch the Ocean Waves website and future newsletters for more information about these upcoming classes.

December Holiday Party

Hospitality Maria Alvarez

Our next Guild Meeting will be August 12, 2017, and the refreshment group will be:

L - M - N - O - P - R

Let's bring salads, sandwiches, fruit, small desserts, and drinks.

I appreciate your help in the "Setting-up" and "Clean-up".

Thank you for your help and generosity with your food contributions.

Write all ingredients on food brought to help our members who have allergies.

Remember to bring food if you miss your month.

As a reminder, and to help in planning ahead, the new refreshment groups are:

GROUP 1: A - B - C - D - E

GROUP 2: F - G - H - I - J - K

GROUP 3: L - M - N - O - P - R

GROUP 4: S - T - V - W - Z.

Fourth of July at Cutler Bay

Lois Erickson shared that ten Ocean Waves members participated in the the July 4th Festivities at Cutler Bay. Members demonstrated English paper piecing and had a Make & Take activity for children. Sandy Malinovsky shared these pictures.

Betty Roxborough shows a quilt that she is donating to Quilts of Valor.

Quilts of Valor (QOV)

Our Guild's Meeting on November 11, 2017 will feature a Quilts of Valor Ceremony; we will show our veterans how much their sacrifice is appreciated.

If you have a family member or a friend who is or has been a member of the military and served in combat, you need to obtain a "Request for Information Form" from Joyce Cotner or Charlotte deOgburn; the returned form is due back to Charlotte or Joyce no later than October 1.

We hope that members of a local Girl Scout Troop will again serve as Honor Guard for the Ceremony.

Thank you! Charlotte & I sincerely appreciate and are grateful for your generous past Quilt of Valor donations. Yes, the need continues to show our gratitude to our veterans, -- therefore, we respectfully request additional quilts. FYI: A QOV does not necessarily have to be red, white & blue. Lap-size is encouraged, -- (55"x65" to 72"x90"). A QOV is usually awarded encased in a coordinating Presentation Bag or Pillowcase.

South Florida Trail Riders at Cowboy Day 2017

Cowboy Day 2017

Deda Maldonado, and Mike

After a week of rain every day, we were a little worried about our National Day of the Cowboy Ride. Well, the sun shone all day, with a slight breeze and an occasional shade tree. We had a wonderful ride.

Deda's Cowboy Day Quilt display included many local quilters, and 17 quilts brought by Pat Keating of Disconnected Piecers Quilt Guild in Port Charlotte, for a total of 42 quilts. There were also quillows and a cowgirl dressed doll that many thought at first glance was a real child.

We thank all our friends for coming out for the ride, the quilt show and the fun.

Minutes of the Ocean Waves Quilt Guild

JULY 8, 2017

By Pam Chamberlin, Secretary

(minutes prepared with assistance of former Secretary Linda Fayant, due to Pam Chamberlin's absence at the July meeting)

President Sharon Krutulis opened the meeting at 9:30.

Executive Board Report: Sharon announced an Executive Board decision that Ocean Waves members who teach a workshop will receive $100.

Secretary: Linda Fayant served as secretary in Pam Chamberlin's absence. June minutes were approved as written in the Newsletter, following a motion (Joyce Cotner) and second (Janet Wetzel).

Treasurer: Mary Jane Nelson said report is in the newsletter; and gave reminder to provide receipts with check requests.

Sunshine and Shadows: Report by Phyllis Salt. Last month's Shadows people were attending: Ellen Sherman, Joyce Cotner and Arlene Goldberg are all recovering. Virgie Lee Shaw is 95. Founding member Irene McLaren who lives in Orlando is not doing well.

Hospitality: Maria Elena Alvarez is now sending email reminders for contributions in advance of the meetings.

Programs 2017: Report by Deda Maldonado

Today: Marcia Baraldi will give a short talk during meeting as well as teaching more "Feathers" classes this afternoon & Sunday. She had copies of her books in English available and some supplies from her shop for sale.

August: Marie Flanigan will teach a class on a "Stars From Strips" quilt; $10 fee - sign up today or on website.

Deda asked for a show of hands as to interest in a Sunday afternoon class for a future "tba" quilt top project.

She also reminded people of the July 21 Fruit & Spice Park Cowboy Days event.

Future Programs: Report by Helen McKane

Presented idea from Executive. Board meeting - holding themed mini quilt shows quarterly (art quilt, applique, whole cloth). Helen has priced quilt display holders. Joan Vigil pointed out the shows would need to be open to the public in order to be in line with Ocean Wave's mission statement. Helen suggested we have them at an open house.

Quilt Show: Deda noted that 2019 is the earliest date this can happen.

Ugly Fabric Challenge: Sharon reminded us that she was still accepting these quilts for donation to the VA.

Membership: Report by Jean Fowler - remaining 2017 directories have been mailed.
63 people attended today.

Guests: Betty Broadman of OK City, OK (mother of Gale Williams); Roberta Galan (friend of Diane Wong); Ricardo Boeirce of Broward (friend of Deda Maldonado); Augustine and Maria Dopico (no sponsor).

Installation Luncheon: Sharon reminded us of date, January 13, 2018 and theme, A Day at the Beach.

- Tips:
- 1) Lois Erickson borrowed an idea from LaVerne Johnson to listen to audiobooks while quilting
 - 2) Arlene Goldberg used a piece of batting tucked into her arm cast to prevent chafing
 - 3) Janet Wetzels uses empty spice jars as "needle caskets"
 - 4) Yvonne Emmanuelli took a register of quilt shop locations with her on a recent trip and found it very helpful for shopping
 - 5) Sharon Krutulis suggested using a journal to record details (fabric, needle size, etc.) on each quilt project you undertake. She gave Lois one as a thank you for her hard work.

Presentation by Marcia Baraldi: Marcia gave a short talk (with Deda translating). She will be a vendor at the International Quilt Festival in Houston. Due to her warm welcome in Florida, she has formed a Florida company for marketing. Her e-book has been translated into English. She is requesting 12" x 12" two color blocks (to be sent through Deda). She will quilt them, making a video of each. She will assemble the quilt and return it to us for a charity raffle. She showed a video of her March class.

Small groups:

- Monday Sewers - Gerry Tucker spoke about Community Quilts. Monday Sewers will be meeting every other week starting this coming Monday. She said they could use donated 2 1/2" or larger squares. She mentioned that she definitely needs a replacement for running Community Quilts as she intends to give it up. Joan Vigil thanked the group for taking two quilts to finish for Community Quilts.
- Christmas ornaments: Sharon Krutulis demonstrated how to make ornaments that can be contributed to the Deering tree, a project of the Family and Consumer Science group.
- Friendship Stars - Ellen Sherman - nothing to report
- Little Quilters - nothing to report
- Material Chicks - Ellen Sherman - Ellen is currently sewing as therapy
- Miami Art Quilters -Cheri Ucci - currently have items at the Eastridge show
- Quilts of Valor - Charlotte deOgburn said they still needed names for potential recipients for the six quilts they would like to present at our Nov. 11 meeting. Need names by October 1.
- We Care Quilters - Betty Roxborough - working on quilts for the September 9 baby shower for VA
- Rookies - Lois Erickson - met Thursday and shared tips & techniques

Fidget Quilts: The Girl Scouts will deliver them in September.

Opportunity Quilt: Linda Davis reported that applied pieces she collected for Gale Polk at the last meeting have been lost or misplaced. Gale is out of town.

4th of July event at Cutler Bay park: Lois Erickson reported that 10 Ocean Waves members came. Barbara Garvine created a "make and take" project for children involving squares and 1/2 triangles to simulate creating a quilt block. Linda Davis demonstrated English paper piecing. Lois reported that Nonah Johnson talked to virtually all the men there regarding Quilts of Valor and was very popular!

Historian: Ellen Sherman requested pictures from the July 4 event.

Facebook: Gayle Williams reported that the Facebook group has about 68 members. She will post the July 4 photos.

Nominating Committee: Kay Wilson has agreed to be the chair for 2018.

Tips: Lois informed the group of the availability of a temporary spray adhesive product called 505 at a good price; members can coordinate with her to order from the vendor.

Deda Maldonado inquired as to interest in forming a small group of AccuQuilt users.

Door Prizes: Pat Kracht, Linda Lever (twice), Sharon Krutulis, Cathy Viar, Rhodi Holzberg, Mary Jane Nelson, guest Augustine Dopico

Humor: Lois Erickson

Show & Help:

- Lois Erickson, Mary Jane Nelson, Marie Flanigan, Sandy Malinovsky, Bar Warner, and others showed the tote bags they made from the June class.
- Phyllis Salt - a multicolor string quilt
- Diane Wong - bed sized stack & whack quilt in oranges and green
- Carol Grassbaugh - Wall hanging made from scraps
- Judy Millero- baby quilt in lavenders and greens to donate for shower
- Anita Thompson - 1) mini quilt with multicolored squares set on point, 2) small wall hanging in a multicolor design on a yellow background (from a Carol Lyles Shaw class)
- Pat Helmcamp - several fabric baskets and a few fabric holders for microwave items
- Betty Roxborough - 1) lap size quilt in soft creams and blues that will be donated as a QOV, 2) multicolor 9-patches on cream for another QOV
- Gary Iglesias - 1) bright yellow and crisp white large wall hanging, 2) 4th of July quilt with large fuzzy fireworks on a solid black background
- Charmane Mead - a top done in a strip search pattern from fabrics bought at OW
- Ricardo Boeirce - a gold and teal wall hanging with a teal border
- Lois - 1) a 9 patch on black tied by Rookies, 2) a quilt top that her sister started to which Lois added the border in purples and yellows. Lois then did the quilting using the ruler technique
- Bar Warner - two small wall hangings for the Miami Art Quilts current Miami Weather exhibit, one of rain drops and one of lightning.
